Work in the US

Moved to the US from Jan, 2022

- New challenges, new missions
- New findings
  - Learn how to live, how to work, and how to enjoy.

---

What did I get from living and working abroad?

- Better personal development and growth
- Better Culture awareness
- Learn things from people with different backgrounds
- Able to see different sides of a thing

---

Better personal development and Growth

- Every country/city has its strength and opportunities.
  - What do you want to pursue? Which area do you want to grow?
- Mental growth
  - The experience changes the way you think and learn
- Social growth
  - Communication help you to understand this world better
- Physical growth
  - Take care of yourself is an ability
- Emotional growth
  - Surprise, stress burnout, happy, anger.
  - Try to be open-minded.

---

Better Culture awareness

Living or working abroad gives you the chance to experience different cultures, customs and traditions.

It helps you to understand how important this diversity is, and moreover, you could learn how to communicate with the rest of the world.

Learn from people with different backgrounds

- You can learn how to manage time well if you live in Japan
- You could be inspired by American's innovative high tech technologies.

Able to see different sides of a thing

There are always different angles of a thing.

The wider you view is, the more information you could get.

This, helps you to keep your independent thinking ability.

- Nothing is 100% right or wrong, the point is, you know all other sides then make your judgement.

Don't make any stereotype assumptions.

- We're all different, right?

Nothing tough?

Language barrier

- Keep observing, don't isolate yourself
- Keep talking, information is more important than grammar.

Racist and Discrimination.

- Protect yourself, never give up.
- Everyone is equal

I am who I am

- Value your identity.
- Be proud of yourself

Where there's a will there's a way.
